

UAVNZ Membership Policy

UAVNZ Executive Committee
Version 2.3, 22nd October 2015

The purpose of this document is to define the grades of membership, requirements and process to join the UAVNZ industry association.

“The UAVNZ industry association has been formed to maximise the benefits from UAV technologies and develop a world-class commercial UAV industry in New Zealand by:

- Connecting: suppliers and customers, hosting forums and networking events.
- Promoting: UAV companies and services, the benefits of UAV technology, and safe and professional operating practices.
- Supporting: companies by providing templates and standards, engaging with the CAA and the wider aviation industry.”

Membership Grades

Member: applicable to commercial UAV operators who have been certificated in accordance with Civil Aviation Rule Part 102. Membership requirements:

- a) financial member of the Aviation NZ, UAVNZ division.
- b) signed UAVNZ code of conduct.
- c) hold an Unmanned Aircraft Operator Certificate (UAOC) issued by the Civil Aviation Authority of NZ .
- d) current third party liability insurance.

Associate Member: applicable to all industry participants and stakeholders interested in growing commercial and economic outcomes from UAV technology (e.g. commercial Civil Aviation Rule Part 101 operators, training organisations, system suppliers, research and government organisations).

Membership requirements:

- a) financial member of the Aviation NZ, UAVNZ division.
- b) signed UAVNZ code of conduct.
- c) for commercial non-Part 102 UAV operators: current third party liability insurance.

Continued next page.

Application Process

- 1) complete the UAVNZ application form.
- 2) if you are applying for “Member” grade: email a copy of your UAOC to info@uav.org.nz
- 3) email a signed copy of the UAVNZ Code of Conduct to info@uav.org.nz
- 4) payment of membership fee for the first year will be processed.
- 5) an email will be sent to you to confirm membership.

Membership Review

The Aviation NZ Council reserves the right to decline or cancel membership in accordance with the Constitution and Rules of Aviation Industry Association of New Zealand (Aviation NZ) and if a member breaches the UAVNZ code of conduct.

Membership Fees Review

Membership fees are reviewed annually at the Aviation NZ AGM in accordance with the Constitution and Rules of Aviation Industry Association of New Zealand.